

TEGA K9 TRAINING & Daycare Statement to Applicants

Thank you for your interest in working at Tega K9, LLC. We are looking hire additional members to join our team who are hard-working, active, fun, and professional and hopefully you will be one of them! Becoming a member of our team requires more than just submitting a resume and application, we want to ensure we are a good match for a long term professional relationship.

The position you are applying for would allow you to work with friendly dogs, in a casual and professional environment with formal training for a career in pet care, also allowing you to bring your dog to work, cross training and career advancement.

Typical starting pay range is $7.50 - $10 an hour based on experience and education. Your pay can quickly increase based on an outlined scale and achievable results based on learned skills, performance and added responsibilities.

The health, safety, and wellbeing of our clients, guests and students is our number one priority. In order to maintain an environment that continually fosters these, we rely heavily on a reliable and responsible staff with flexible availability.

Employees of Tega K9, LLC facilities are very carefully screened to ensure our ability to continually provide the highest level of training and care in the industry for all of our students, guests and clients. We are looking for the following:

- Dependable, responsible people who have a genuine love for dogs.
- Team members who thrive on not being micro managed because they take the initiative to do their job well and ask questions when they don't know the answer to something.
- Team members who want a career in this industry not just a job.
- Team members who are caring, patient, and understanding with animals and people.
- Team members who are truly interested in bettering the lives of the dogs, their guardians and the environment at Tega K9, LLC. And want to promote our company mission (Please review below)
- For these team members, this position can be an extremely rewarding experience and career.

Our Company Mission is to offer a safe, fun, educational environment for our canine guests, clients and staff!

For our canine guests we will provide an environment for all dogs and puppies to play, socialize, build confidence as well as healthy social and communication skills. Additionally, we will couple our daycare services with our force free and science based training methods to support and direct the raising of an emotionally and physically healthy, well rounded and trained dog.

For our clients we will provide an environment that fosters excellent, open communication, teaching and awareness of appropriate canine care and development in the home and the world they live in to support the overall wellness of canine family members.

For our staff we will provide an environment that welcomes open communication, education and opportunities for personal advancement in the pet care industry.

If after reading and understanding everything described above, you still believe a job with Tega K9, LLC is right for you, we look forward to considering you for a position. Please check out our website to fully understand the services we offer prior to a potential in person interview. TegaK9.com
